Now Accepting Applications!

2018 Amy Roberts Health Promotion Research Award
Submission Deadline: Tuesday, May 1, 2018

The Amy Roberts Health Promotion Research Award was established to assist the research activities of young investigators affiliated with the Magee-Womens Research Institute (MWRI) or sponsored by a MWRI member, and studying health promotion and wellbeing. Applications for the 2018 Award of approximately $5,000 are now being accepted. The research can include, but is not limited to, projects addressing exercise, nutrition, smoking cessation, and obesity reduction.

The award will be used for research by young investigators including a summer research project. (Note: For medical students the stipend is similar to the Dean’s Summer Research Program). Eligible candidates must be at the beginning of their careers (high school through faculty appointment of three years or less, affiliated with the Magee-Womens Research Institute (MWRI) OR sponsored by a MWRI member, and studying health promotion and wellbeing. If an applicant does not have a sponsor, he/she should contact Ms. Kelli Lazar (klazar@mwri.magee.edu). Dr. Jim Roberts will identify an appropriate sponsor and coordinate introductions. MWRI investigators are encouraged to sponsor a high school, college, medical or graduate student or other trainee such as a resident or fellow.

The Amy Roberts Health Promotion Research Award will be presented May 18, 2018 during the 2018 Annual Research Day in Reproductive Biology and Women’s Health. Application forms and instructions may be found on the MWRI website http://mageewomens.org/education/amy-roberts-health-promotion-research-award/ or for additional information please contact Ms. Lazar (klazar@mwri.magee.edu).

Applications must be submitted electronically (in a single file) to Ms. Lazar (klazar@mwri.magee.edu) no later than 5:00 PM Tuesday, May 1, 2018.